

Vancouver Monthly Meeting

FALL RETREAT

at the

QUAKER MEETING HOUSE

Theme: Quaker women at the forefront

Saturday, November 18, 2017 • 10am to 3pm

PROGRAMME

Morning session • 10 am to 12 noon

After a short introduction, participants are invited to peruse books selected from our library that are by or about Quaker women, and identify passages that touch their own lives. There will be time to share our reflections, and the discussion can carry over into the lunch period.

Lunch • 12 noon to 1 pm

A simple lunch will be provided on site. Friends wishing to bring their own food may do so.

Afternoon session • 1 pm to 3 pm

The afternoon session will include a panel discussion of issues facing Quaker women today. Participants will share their thoughts and experiences, and there will be time for worship sharing and questions.

Further information

No registration nor any formal commitment is required, but please advise one of the organisers if you are planning to come, so we can provide lunch for you.

Harry Gill: <harry_gill_2000@yahoo.com> or text or call 778.773.1982.

James Turner: <james.turner@umontreal.ca> or text or call 778.320.1853.